

Clinch Valley Community Action is excited to celebrate the program facilities that are participating in the Child and Adult Care Food Program (CACFP) and their efforts to combat food insecurity in its service area. Facilities approved for participation receive reimbursements for nutritious meals served to enrolled participants in their care. For additional information, contact Mary Mitchell or Kris Mutter at 276-988-5583.

Participating non-pricing sponsoring organizations, emergency shelters, centers and homes provide the same meals at no extra charge to all participants at their facility based on race, color, national origin, sex, gender identify (including gender expression and sexual orientation), disability, age, or reprisal or retaliation for prior civil rights activity. During the 2025-2026 program year, Clinch Valley Community Action will provide CACFP meals at the following locations:

Bland County

Bland Head Start Center (76 Seddon Street, Bland, VA)

Smyth County

Chilhowie Head Start Center (809 Mason Alley, Chilhowie, VA)

- Children who receive TANF, FDPIR or Supplemental Nutrition Assistant Program (SNAP), or who are a Head Start/Early Head Start participant are automatically eligible for free meals. Foster children or a child who is a member of a household receiving SNAP, FDPIR, or TANF or housing a Head Start/Early Head Start participant are automatically eligible for free meals.
- Adult participants at enrolled adult care centers who are a part of SNAP or FDPIR households or are SSI or Medicaid participants are automatically eligible for reimbursement benefits at the free rate.

FNS Instruction 113-1, Part IX, Section A (4) (d) Public Notification. State or local agencies, and their sub-recipients, must post the following nondiscrimination statement and include it, in full, on all materials regarding such programs that are produced for public information, public education, or public distribution. If a State authorizes additional language, it must be included in a separate statement.

In accordance with federal civil rights law and USDA civil rights regulations and policies, the USDA, its agencies, offices, employees, and institutions participating in or administering USDA programs are prohibited from discriminating based on race, color, national origin, religion, sex, disability, age, marital status, family/parental status, income derived from a public assistance program, political beliefs, or reprisal or retaliation for prior civil rights activity, in any program or activity conducted or funded by USDA (not all bases apply to all programs). Remedies and compliant filing deadlines vary by program or incident.

Persons with disabilities who require alternative means of communication for program information (e.g. Braille, large print, audiotape, American Sign Language, etc.), should contact the state or local agency that administers the program or contact USDA through the Telecommunications Relay Service at 711 (voice and TTY). Additionally, program information may be available in languages other than English.

To file a program discrimination complaint, complete the USDA Program Discrimination Complaint Form, (AD-3027), found online at How to File a Program Discrimination Complaint at http://www.ascr.usda.gov/complaint_filing_cust.htm, and at any USDA office, or write a letter addressed to USDA and provide in the letter all of the information requested in the form.

To request a copy of the complaint form, call (866) 632-9992. Submit your completed form or letter to USDA by:

1. Mail: U.S. Department of Agriculture, Office of the Assistant Secretary for Civil Rights, 1400 Independence Avenue, SW, Washington, D.C. 20250-9410;
2. Fax: (202) 690-7442;
3. Email: program.intake@usda.gov

USDA is an equal opportunity provider, employer, and lender.

Participating centers will receive free or reduced price reimbursements for meals served based on the following income eligibility guidelines effective July 1, 2026 to June 30, 2027.
